CAPTAIN KOENIG BRINGS SUBMERSIBLE BACK TO SHORES OF UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—The post office department is prepared to accept a proposal, submitted by Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, that mails between this country and Germany be transported in merchant submarines. Announcement to this effect was made today by Otto Praeger, second assistant post master general.

New London, November 1.—Germany's first commercial submarine, the Deutschland, arrived here early today, completing her second voyage through the warships of Great Britain and France on both sides of the Atlantic. Under Captain Paul Koenig, who was in command during her first trip to Baltimore, the Deutschland left Bremen on October 10 and tied up at a berth prepared for her at 2:35 o'clock this morning.

The German submarine entered the lower harbor shortly after midnight, coming in by the Race at the entrance to Long Island Sound. For several weeks the Eastern Forwarding company, agents for her owners, had a tug each night off Montauk Point ready to meet the Bremen, but the tug was withdrawn some time ago. It was evident that the forwarding company had some warning of the Deutschland's arrival, however, for a tug was engaged and Captain F. Hirsch of the company, accompanied by the health officer, steamed out to meet the submarine. The North German Lloyd steamer, Willehad, which had been at her dock for a number of weeks, awaiting the arrival of a German submarine freighter, let her search light play on the water, marking the path by which the Deutschland traveled to her wharf.

Captain Koenig said that he had expected to leave Bremen on October 1 but that his boat was injured in a collision and forced to put back for repairs which delayed her sailing for ten days.

CREW IN EXCELLENT HEALTH

The captain and the crew of twenty-five men were in excellent health and high spirits over the success of their second venture. The Deutschland carried clearance papers for "Baltimore or any Atlantic port."

The boat was no sooner moored than she was screened from sight by a pontoon carrying a high fence. Her crew went on board the Willehad where quarters were awaiting them.

The German submersible has a cargo of 750 tons of dye-stuffs, medicines and chemicals.

A gang of stevedores was prepared to move the cargo but permission has not yet been granted by the customs officials. Neither Captain Koenig nor Captain F. Hirsch of the Eastern Forwarding Company, were communicative as to details of the trip across the Atlantic, but they promised to see newspapermen late in the afternoon. They pleaded that they were too busy with details of the unloading.

Crowds thronged the dock during the forenoon in the hope of getting a glimpse of the craft, but they were disappointed. The submarine is so well berthed in her pocket that not even her masts show. Policemen and detectives kept the crowd moving.

A letter to Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, was brought by the Deutschland and the letter was sent to Washington by special messengers this afternoon.

On her trip of 21 days to this country the Deutschland submerged for only 120 miles near the English coast. If the crew saw any British or French war ships on her trip, Captain Koenig would not admit it.

"At any rate, they did not see us," he was quoted as saying. With Paul Hilkens, an official of the Eastern Forwarding Company, Captain Koenig paid a visit to the customs officers at noon and entered the arrival of his craft with James L. McGovern, collector of customs. A crowd near the customs offices gave the cap-

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she understands a great many fortunes have been made out of the war stocks in the last year and she knows people herself who didn't have a thing a few months ago that seem to be right on their tips now.

Melbourne, (Via London) Nov. 1.—The resignation of Albert Gardiner, vice-president of the executive council, A. J. Russell, assistant minister of marine, and M. Higgs, minister of the treasury, have been accepted.

CANNED GOODS TO COST MORE

Columbus, O., Nov. 1.—Increases of from 20 to 40 cents a dozen on canned goods for 1917 were predicted by officials of the Ohio State Canning Association.

Cans will advance 50 per cent Jan. 1, it was announced and labels have risen 100 per cent while factory equipment has increased as high as 300 per cent in some cases. Labor costs more and prices of food products are soaring, officials explained. The increased cost of cans alone adds eight cents to the cost of every dozen cans, it was stated.

BOTH SIDES CLAIMING BIG GAINS

London, Nov. 1.—Important successes for both the Entente and Rumanian armies are claimed in today's despatches relative to the fighting along the Rumanian-Tsylvanian frontier.

Official Berlin announces an Austro-German victory southwest of Kronstadt where Rumanian positions west of the Predeal road have been captured, together with ten cannon and seventeen machine guns. Southeast of Rothenthurm Pass also, General Von Falkenhayn's troops are reported to be making progress.

Reports of the Rumanian success are unofficial based on a Bucarest despatch received in Rome. It declares the Austro-German forces have retired from the region of Campulung in northern Rumania, pursued over the frontier by Rumanian troops, which wiped out four hostile battalions.

Further Russian attacks on the troops of Prince Leopold defending the approaches to Lemberg have been repulsed, Berlin declares. It records heavy losses for the Russians in five successive assaults on the positions recently won by the Germans along the easterly bank of the Narayivka.

On the Somme front there has been a renewal of intensive fighting. The French again exerted pressure near the point of the en-ente wedge into the German lines between Sainly-Saillies and Les Bœufs advancing last night, according to Paris, in the vicinity of the last named place. Berlin records the failure of British attempts to advance along the mile and a half line running northwest from Les Bœufs to Guedecourt and at Courclette.

Various reports have been current regarding the submarine and it was uncertain whether the craft was returning to Germany or had remained on this side of the Atlantic. There were various rumors also that she had been sunk. A search by American warships for a German secret base along the New England coast for supplying submarines proved fruitless, according to naval officers.

The Germans were on the offensive at Sainly-Saillies but Paris reports they were defeated there in a violent engagement.

In Macedonia on the Struma front northeast of Saloniki, British troops have pushed further into the Bulgarian lines, capturing the village of Barakli-Azuma, according to Paris today. Three hundred prisoners were taken by the British.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—(By wireless to Sayville)—An attack made by British troops on the Somme front in the vicinity of Courclette last night broke down under the German fire, the war office announced today. Vain efforts also were made by the British to advance from the Guedecourt-Les Bœufs line.

Strong efforts were made by the Russians yesterday to recapture positions taken by the Austro-German forces on the Narayivka river in Galicia southeast of Lemberg. The Russians charged five times, but were defeated with heavy losses.

The war office announces an important success in Rumania. Austro-German troops penetrated Rumanian positions near the Predeal road, capturing ten cannon and seventeen machine guns.

RUMANIANS DRIVE BACK ENEMY

Bucharest, Nov. 1.—(Via London)—The Rumanians have driven back further the Austro-German forces in the Jiu region of the Transylvanian front, and are continuing the pursuit, the war office announced today. They have captured more than 600 men and a great quantity of war materials.

NO RELIEF IN COAL SITUATION

Columbus, O., Nov. 1.—There appeared to be no relief in sight today for the coal shortage situation in Ohio and many factories over the state were reported to be operating on a hand to mouth basis on coal supply.

In an effort to get their cars back on their own lines in the coal fields, some of the railroads were reported to have placed an embargo on coal and cars to some of the transcontinental railroads.

As a result, some of the Ohio coal dealers reported that they were buying coal from Indiana and Illinois for delivery on out of the state contracts.

It was reported that in the Pittsburgh district, coal cars are being used for the transportation of iron and steel to the seaboard and that in Michigan such cars are being used to handle the sugar beet crop.

Should the car shortage continue, operators and dealers say the price of soft coal may reach $10 a ton this winter.

Columbus, O., Nov. 1.—Inability to get coal on account of the car shortage, caused the city of Columbus to suspend operation of its garbage disposal plant today.

Columbus, O., Nov. 1.—The city of Columbus will not permit its municipal water works plant to be shut down by reason of the inability of the railroad companies to deliver coal because of the car shortage, Jerry O'Shaughnessy, superintendent of the water works announced today.

"We have only two days' supply on hand," said O'Shaughnessy, "and if the railroads do not deliver coal under contract, we will go out and confiscate coal on the tracks in this city. Motor trucks will be used if this becomes necessary to haul the coal to the plant. Of course, the city would have to pay the market price for it if it confiscated the coal."

Ohio coal operators not only face a car shortage, but a labor shortage which is becoming serious. Fred W. Braggins, head of the Lorain Coal and Dock Company, one of the largest operators in Eastern Ohio said today.

Braggins said the miners were leaving the coal mines because of lack of work due to the car shortage and going into the mills and factories to work.

News agency dispatches from Athens on Sunday announced the sinking of the Angliki, giving the number of recruits at 350 of whom 50 were said to have drowned.

the region of Campulung, in Northern Rumania, pursued by the Rumanians, who have passed over the frontier in the movement according to a despatch from Bucharest, says a wireless message from Rome today. Four hostile battalions were annihilated by the Rumanians, according to this report.

BRITISH CAPTURE TOWN IN MACEDONIA

Paris, Nov. 1.—The village of Sayville)—Thirty men were drowned when the Greek steamer Angliki was sunk by a German submarine seven and one-half miles off Piraeus last week, according to an Athens despatch to the Overseas News Agency. The steamer was bound for Saloniki, ashore at Perraporth. The latest report of the steamship A. D. Davidson is of her departure

AUSTRIAN CABINET IS NAMED

Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 1.—The Vienna Zeitung publishes an autograph letter from Emperor Francis Joseph to Dr. Ernest Von Koeber, the new Austrian premier, appointing the following cabinet.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—Secretary Lansing authorized a formal statement today that the progress of the political campaign would in no way affect the investigation of submarine attacks and that there had been no change in the United States government's policy.

Meanwhile Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, sent a wireless despatch to his government asking that he be furnished immediately by wireless with all the details available regarding the sinking of the Mar-intra, the A. D. Davidson was much overdue and the news that the life-boat had been picked up caused the rate of reinsurance to rise to 70 guineas percent.

Montreal, Quebec, Nov. 1.—Harbor officials said here today that the steamship A. D. Davidson carried an American crew. The vessel was one of a number of American lake grain carriers purchased by the French government. The crew was said here to have been engaged by J. W. Elwell and Company, shipping commissioners in New York City.

London, Nov. 1.—Further affidavits from American survivors of the sunken British steamer Marlin say that the vessel has a 4.7 inch gun mounted astern, but that it was not used as the ship had no warning of the submarine attack, and it was too late after the torpedoes had hit the vessel.

Athens, Tuesday, Oct. 31.—(Via London)—The 5,000 ton Greek merchantman Kiki Issais, was torpedoed this afternoon near the place at which the Angliki was sunk.

Survivors Describe Their Experiences

Cork, (Via London) Nov. 1.—Fifteen Americans who reached Corfu Tuesday night with the other members of the crew of the Marlin after that steamer had been sunk by a submarine torpedo

"I saw three of the crew running up the stern as the vessel gave its last tremble. Captain Browne was the coolest man on board. During the launching of the boats, he saw that every man visible was in the boat, then jumped for a boat himself, but missed it in the rough sea and was drowned before our very eyes."

WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION
Theda Bara In Her Greatest Picture At Columbia Tonight

Theda Bara, in a moving picture revival of the famous stage, long-run favorite, "East Lynne," is offered to the public by William Fox in a photo-drama even exceeding that star's and that noted producer's previous triumphs in master picture making. The old drama of English country life is enacted in all its truthfulness in its powerful form, by an all-star cast in support of Miss Bara, including those picture favorites, Claire Whitney, Stanhope Wheatcroft, W. H. Tooker, the charming "movie villain" Stuart Holmes and other actors and actresses of sound reputations on stage and screen.

In writing the scenario from the novel "East Lynne" and the play "East Lynne," Miss Mary Muriel retains in its picture form all the dramatic and literary force, but increases the scope of the story along lines only possible in moving pictures. Bertram Brocken, who directs the pictures starring Miss Bara, selected scenery true to type in old-fashioned spots in the East, where the buildings and gardens appeared quite like those of rural England, and the interior scenes, taken in the Fox studios in New Jersey, show genuine old English antique furnishings, which lend a color unusually correct, even considering the usual accuracy of high class picture productions.

"The Little Girl Next Door," The Picture Sensation of the Entire Year, Columbia Friday and Saturday.

Humanity on its sordid, seamy "Little Girl Next Door," the new side is vividly portrayed in "The picture now stirring the country.

More than ordinary interest attaches to this film for the reason that only seven professional Es-samay players are in the cast, while twenty-eight well known public officials, churchmen and welfare workers of Illinois appear in the various scenes, many of which are based on incidents coming under the personal notice of members of the Illinois Vice Commission.

The story is daring, to put it mildly, and handles without gloves "white slavery" and those vicious influences of the underworld which few care to discuss. The close connection between vice and politics is not side-stepped, and the avowed "mission" of the picture is to show women and girls the pitfalls that menace them, and to arm them against the evil by showing the methods used to trap the unwary and the innocent.

Owing to the unusual character of the film, it is freely predicted that it will go strong in this city.

Big Western Feature at Arcana Tonight

Manager Potts has booked the eighth episode of the Liberty Film feature, entitled "Clipped Wings," a big western play for tonight. Owing to the greatly increased cost of tobacco, in fact every thing pertaining to high grade cigar making of the San Felice cigar, the Mottos-Wenner company, have advanced the selling price to the Jobbers and Dealers, but the price to the public is still the same, $4.00 per box, and is to be sold at the San Felice straight instead of for a quarter as previously.

WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION
Theda Bara In Her Greatest Picture At Columbia Tonight

Theda Bara, in a moving picture revival of the famous stage, long-run favorite, "East Lynne," is offered to the public by William Fox in a photo-drama even exceeding that star's and that noted producer's previous triumphs in master picture making. The old drama of English country life is enacted in all its truthfulness in its powerful form by an all-star cast in support of Miss Bara, including these picture favorites, Claire Whitney, Stanhope Wheatcroft, W. H. Tooker, the charming "movie villain"; Stuart Holmes and other actors and actresses of sound reputations on stage and screen.

In writing the scenario from the novel "East Lynne" and the play "East Lynne," Miss Mary Murillo retains in its picture form all the dramatic and literary force, but increases the scope of the story along lines only possible in moving pictures. Bertram Bracken, who directs the pictures starring Miss Bara, selected scenery true to type in old-fashioned spots in the East, where the buildings and gardens appeared quite like those of rural England, and the interior scenes, taken in the Fox studios in New Jersey, show genuine old English antique furnishings, which lend a color unusually correct, even considering the usual accuracy of high-class picture productions.

More than ordinary interest attaches to this film for the reason that only seven professional Esanay players are in the cast, while twenty-eight well known public officials, churchmen and welfare workers of Illinois appear in the very convincing manner. The various scenes, many of which are based on incidents coming under the personal notice of members of the Illinois Vice Commission.

The story is daring, to put it mildly, and handles without gloves "white slavery" and those vicious influences of the underworld which few care to discuss. The close connection between vice and politics is not side-stepped, and the avowed "mission" of the picture is to show women and girls the pitfalls that menace them, and to arm them against the evil by showing the methods used to trap the unwary and the innocent.

Owing to the unusual character of the film, it is freely predicted that it will go strong in this city.

Big Western Feature at Arcana Tonight

Manager Potts has booked the eighth episode of the Liberty Film feature, entitled "Clipped Wings," a big western play for tonight. This is one of the most startling plays ever shown and full of excitement from beginning to end. Second to it and in no sense a less startling in nature will be a two reel drama feature starring Francis Ford and Grace Cunard, a pair hard to beat. The big program will come to a close in a delightful play of the light vein, entitled, "He Became a Regular Fellow," a comedy that is bound to make every one scream with delight. Only five cents tonight, despite the high character of the attractions.

This has created much favorable comment wherever shown and no doubt the Temple will have the biggest crowds of the year on Saturday night. For tonight Manager Potts has three headliners, "Jackstraws," two reel Latin drama; "For Sweet Charity," Kalom comedy, and "Otto, the Soldier," a side-splitting comedy. Come tonight and see

THE PROMISE OF THE PRESENT

Often you hear a thing is too good to be true. We opine that must be the feeling of the average citizen of the Peerless when he hears that under a certain contingency, an industry, which has under construction extensions and additions that will cost around three million dollars, will extend them by a further expenditure of a million. It must be confessed that while we have plants that represent an enormous capital their development has been so gradual that we are not accustomed to thinking in million terms. To be called on to do so is as novel as it is agreeable. Dwelling on the novelty earnestly, as we should, comes the clearer conception of importance of Portsmouth as an industrial and the conviction that her development to far greater magnitude is assured.

There should also come with this the purpose in the mind of each citizen to do his individual part in promoting growth and above all that he will not negatively suffer bars to be set upon the actual limit thereof, or be in anywise retarded. This brings us quite naturally to the matter of the annexation of New Boston, to be submitted to the voters, next Tuesday. We reiterate that logically and in the record Portsmouth can not be as great as she ought to be without the admission of the village.

Her expansion to the east is automatically shut off so long as New Boston continues a separate corporate existence. Full in the confidence that every voter of Portsmouth, who is rightfully proud of his home and hopeful of her future, will mark his ballot for annexation, if he does not forget and he is urged to remember. The Times is impressed the voters of New Boston ought to agree with an equal unanimity. Let each one take this thought, the village can in effect, be nothing but a part of Portsmouth, it would be better then to join with her in fact and make a greater Portsmouth. And let not this altogether essential fact be held clear, that here can be no annexation unless both places vote for it.

ITS DIFFICULT TASK

May be this is because most people would rather have the news as they want it rather than as it is.

Let us take the straw ballot being taken by the Cincinnati Enquirer as a case in point bearing on the propositions we have laid down. The Republican state committee has issued a bulletin not only controverting the conclusions ordinarily drawn from the Enquirer ballot, but actually going the length of charging the paper with unfairness and especial effort to draw out a poll favorable to Wilson. On the other hand Democrats find fault with that same ballot, because, as they allege, it is not impartial in the fact that an undue proportion, as they look at it, of the vote is taken in Cincinnati, and quarters thereof, which is regarded as more hostile to the president than any other section of the state. They pooh pooh the claim of the Republicans that the Enquirer is a Democratic paper.

Both overlook one essential fact and that is a paper, whose circulation and prestige rest upon the giving of the news, must hold pretty straight fairness and reliability, else will it have neither influence nor popularity. We have no knowledge or belief that the Enquirer, which seems to have an admirable way of conducting its own business successfully, professes at all to be a Democratic paper, but if it were and not scrupulous as to its partisan methods, it strikes us it would be polling Indiana and all the other states the same as it is alleged to be doing with Ohio. We are neither defending nor apologizing for it, we are simply trying to present the fact of how difficult it is for a newspaper to please all its esteemed subscribers with their many and varied moods and desires. It, in truth, can't. The best it can do is to print the news as accurately as it can get it related and in such a way that the majority will retain full faith and confidence in it. If the politicians would recognize that a new era has come with the press and the very conditions demand newspaper shall be less partisan and more business institutions, building upon fairness, honesty and dependability, the same as other successful businesses do, there would be a better understanding of their mission and their position.

The jingoes and some politicians are finding fault with the administration because it has not so far seen fit to protest against the activities of the German submarine within sight of American shores. There happens to be a reason why the incident has been permitted to pass by without any diplomatic exchanges. In the civil war, when the Kearsarge and the Alabama fought their famous engagement, which we are fond of boasting was the most spectacular in naval warfare, they were only eight miles off the coast of France. Promptly the French government filed a protest. The answer of Secretary Seward, who was one of the most learned and gifted men that ever occupied the position of premier of the cabinet, was that the American government could not admit the right of France to interfere, or dictate the course of warships of another country anywhere outside the three mile limit. So this country is stopped by an explicit declaration to an international law, or common acceptance.

Dwelling on things that float down from that rally at the state capital, Monday, there may be something in that boast that the Peerless have "the best band in the state," though true enough a hundred other towns will dispute it.

THE CHAMPION FOOLISH QUESTION

Tomorrow will be Thursday, the next day Friday, Saturday will be a half holiday to many, Sunday everybody and his wife will be out in his tin Lizzie, the next day Monday and then the election will be here and a campaign that has been far from delirious over.

From the way some fellows talk we conclude their chief grievance is the times persist not only in remaining good, but growing better.

If we search for perfection in a man we will not find it; therefore how unjust to reject him because he has done one thing that displeases us.

Pity poor Chicago. Scouring the country over she can't find men to fill the thousands of jobs she has waiting for them, or anybody that will work.

Don't forget that because there is a most unusual era of prosperity prevalent money is actually any easier made than it ever was. It still has to be worked and striven for. Wherefore be more than ever on your guard against schemes and projects offering fabulous returns because the fakir and the fraud know the sucker bites most freely in flush periods.

If you have read carefully the instructions how to mark your ballot you need have no fear of losing your vote.

Papers are again jeering Kaiser Wilhelm for his never-failing references to the Deity in his proclamations. Say what they may the world is at least no worse because of his devoutness and faith. And there is one that will not judge him harshly because of his display of these virtues.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Nov. 1—Bellus is raising the very old dicken, despite the strength of the cases. All of which is our exclusive, high-browish and uncopied way of saying that the war is having an awful effect on cheese.

Referring to Webster's highly valued dictionary I find that the Latin for cheese is caseus and war is bellus, hence caseus bellus, or bellows about the increase of some 200 per cent in the high cost of cheese, owing to the world series in Europe.

The war has cut the cheese importation something scandalous. Owing to the U-boat menace in steamship land it is almost impossible to induce a skipper to bring an Edam cheese to New York. A facetious and cigarette borrowing friend at my elbow suggests—as he reaches for another cigarette—that the Turkish army has called to colors all the Kurds. He says take it for what it is worth.

It is worth about one cigarette—so the account is balanced. Even the dependable Swiss cheese is lacking. Surely, one would say, the Swiss cheese is not like odoriferous Limburger, which is always violating America's neutrality. The well-known dictionary previously mentioned, in free pdf, says that cheese is made from whole milk, etc. But, of course, every one who has viewed a slab of Swiss cheese knows that it is made from hole milk, an equal quantity of hole and milk.

There is a hint that Limburger, which is the last word in frigidity, is being held in reserve by the Prussian strategists for the time when poison gas loses its terrors. Anyway, Broadway needs cheese—restaurants are marking up the price daily and even the delicatessen men say the shortage is serious, to say nothing of provoking.

In that distant twilight of long ago, when Trilby first strode upon Gotham stage, it was Virginia Harned's bare footsies which chiefly stirred the public mind. Were they really bare? That was the question. And what would Boston say? It was a wild, mad, throbbing and palpitating year, indeed.

An Inapropos Poem

When I wood Matilda I used to admire
The cute little ways that she had,
Bare feet do not excite theatregoers anymore and the human body is becoming a less ribald object.
Why, even to see her eat soup
would inspire
A bard pen rhymes just as had as this.

But it is only my purpose to write
A poem that will live when I'm gone,
I merely remark, though I know that it's trite
Matilda had "ways all her own."

But now that we're married,
there's been a slight change
Though I love her the same as of yore,

I cannot enthuse, though you may think it strange,
O'er the ways that bewitched me before.

She still eats her soup in the self-same old style,
And I'm passive. But here let me say

Though her cute mannerisms no longer beguile,
Matilda now has her own way.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 560.

Dear Miss Wise—After one has an over-flowed vault attended to, which is an injury to one's health, and as well as very embarrassing, and to whom should it be appealed? A READER.

Notify the Board of Health.

Dear Dolly—What will take iodine out of a blue and white dress? GIRL READER.

If you soak stain in cold water when it's fresh it will come out in a jiffy. If the stain is old, make a thick paste of ordinary starch to cover the stain, and then applying it with cold cream you won't have black-heads.

If you only have an occasional pimple once a while iodine or aromatic ammonia will heal it up, but if you have them all the time, would advise you to consult a physician.

BLUE EYES.

The proper place would be next to the aisle, but if he waited to, there is no reason why he should not sit between two of the girls. There are several moving picture magazines that give such information.

WISHING TO KNOW.

There is no one here that I know of who could teach how to write photo-plays. Unless you have a talent along that line, all the teachers in the world could not teach you that would make him act this way, or do you think he was probably disappointed in me, as we had not known each other long? PANSY.

You may hear from him yet; if not, he was probably disappointed in you. You can't expect to please everyone.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. George Freund's home on Gallia avenue was beautifully decorated in orange and black, in readiness for a party which their two attractive young daughters, Dorothy and Lillian, gave last evening when there were forty-five guests attired in masquerade costumes of all sorts. Marshmallows were toasted, there were guessing contests, and other Hallowe'en diversions. In a guessing contest Miss Helen Dowling and Miss Margaret Maupin won the Hallowe'en favors. The Misses Ethel and Stella McCall, attired as gypsies, told the fortunes of the young folks. Little Miss Martha June Spencer recited James Whitcomb Riley's "Little Orphan Annie," which the guests very much enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served at the end of the delightful evening.

The Misses Myrtle and Bessie Hoy of Columbus, are guests of Miss Mabel Moritz, on Ninth street.

The First Presbyterian Woman's Missionary Society held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. I. Marsh, there being sixteen members present. Every Republican Should Stand Solidly Behind Their Standard Bearer!

VOTE FOR CHARLES E. HUGHES WHO MEANS WHAT HE SAYS, AND WILL ADOPT A CONSTANT POLICY THAT WILL STAND FOR PEACE, PROSPERITY AND HUMANITY.

Do not vote for Mr. Wilson who has no fixed purpose, but follows a hand to mouth policy that does not get anywhere, and has brought shame to the American people, suffering to the Mexicans, and our own people on the border and in Mexico, and invites disaster to the labor and industrial interests of the American people.

COLLIER'S WEEKLY SAYS: "MR. WILSON HAS PURSUED NO POLICY AT ALL. ONE DAY IT WAS NO MORE ARMY, ANOTHER DAY A GREAT BIG ARMY; ONE DAY FREE TRADE, ANOTHER DAY PROTECTION; NOW VILLA, NEXT CARRANZA; NOW EMBARGO, NEXT NO EMBARGO; NOW TOO PROUD TO FIGHT, NEXT A PUNITIVE EXPEDITION."

Mr. Wilson promised to protect American lives and property in Mexico, and champion the cause of small and helpless states; but he has miserably failed to guard lives and property of our own people in Mexico and on American soil along the border. The people of Mexico have been left helpless.

The Democratic claim that "He has kept us out of war" is a false catch-phrase. Who wanted to go to war with us? Foreign countries are too busy fighting among themselves.

The great questions now before this country and that will follow the war must be handled by wisdom and a man with definite purpose. Mr. Wilson's hesitating and changing course shows him unfit; Mr. Hughes' public career shows him to be fearless and capable of giving a business-like administration.

HAS CARGO WITH TWO MILLION

Within a few days it is expected that the Deutschland will officially enter her cargo. The value of the cargo is said to be $2,000,000.

Neither Captain Koenig nor his officers asked any questions concerning the submarine Bremen. The officers of the Deutschland, it is understood, were aware of the presence of the armed German submarine U-53 in American waters recently. They had not heard, however, that she arrived in Germany safely and were plainly pleased at the tidings.

When the submersible poked her nose into the harbor in a blanket of fog, she did not take a pilot aboard. Captain Koenig said the harbor here is especially adapted for his boat and he believed that if necessary, he could safely submerge at the dock and leave the harbor without any one knowing it.

A short time after the Deutschland had docked her crew began pumping seventy-five tons of oil into her hold from a large tank at a siding near the pier.

While New London has been expecting the arrival of a German submarine for some months, the Deutschland's appearance was a surprise, except to officials of the Eastern Forwarding company here, the American agents of the German line of submarine merchantmen. The Deutschland appeared off Eastern point soon after midnight and anchored. A heavy fog lay over the harbor. The T. A. Scott Wrecking company, sub agents of the Eastern Forwarding company, sent its tug T. A. Scott Jr., which towed the craft to the special berth at the forwarding company's wharf alongside the North German Lloyd liner Willehad.

First Arrived

On July 9

Following rumors many days old, oft-repeated, the Deutschland made its first appearance in American waters at 1:45 in the morning of July 9, etched by the vivid flashes of an electrical storm, the strange looking craft was seen by a pilot boat as she slipped into Chesapeake Bay, after running the gauntlet of gunboats standing guard off the Virginia Capes. Her voyage of approximately 4,100 miles, made without a stop at any port, established a record for craft of the kind.

The Deutschland was soon after picked up by the tug Timmins, which had been at the capes several days awaiting her arrival, and convoyed up the bay to Baltimore, where she dropped anchor that night. On the first trip she brought a cargo of dyestuffs, the value of which was estimated at from $500,000 to $1,000,000. The arrival of the Deutschland at Baltimore created a new diplomatic problem. Was the ship, owing to its submarine characteristic to be classed as a warship or as a peaceful merchantman? The American government at once sent naval experts to Baltimore to investigate. Captain Koenig afforded the government officials every facility and they made a thorough inspection of the craft.

The investigation resulted in the verdict that the Deutschland was a peaceful and unarmed mer-

NEURALGIC PAINS

Shooting pains in the head with giddiness, noise in the ears and tenderness of the scalp—pains in the neck and shoulders or extending down the arms to the hands, these are the most common symptoms of neuralgia.

There are a number of causes of neuralgia. It is most common in families whose members have nervous dispositions and it is very often a result of anemia or lack of blood.

Hot applications give temporary relief in neuralgia and should be used. They cannot cure the trouble because the pain is the complaint that the under-nourished nerve is making and it will not be quieted until the nerve is fed. "The only way to reach the nerves with nourishment is through the blood. That is why thin blood so frequently leads to neuralgia. When the blood becomes thin the nerves lack nourishment. Build up the blood, supply to it the elements that the nerves need and you begin to correct the neuralgia."

The free booklet "Diseases of the Nervous System" will interest you. Write for it today to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail on receipt of price 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

for several weeks. This cargo, made up in small packages, is stowed in a shed of a corrugated iron building at the water's edge on one of the new state piers recently completed and leased by the Eastern Forwarding Company for an indefinite period.

The Deutschland is securely berthed here. The North German Lloyd Steamship Willehad is made fast to piling at a distance of about 50 feet from the pier with the stern of the ship hard and fast against the New London bank of the Thames river, and in such a position that with the ship on one side, the pier on the other and the bank at one end, an open water space 50 by 385 feet is made enclosed on three sides. To complete the enclosure a floating gate built on pontoons is made fast to a piling set at the bow of the Willehad.

Visitors Kept

At a Distance
Guards from the crew of the Willehad and private detectives employed by the company, keep all visitors at a distance. To prevent the submarine being reached by water from under the piers, the piling directly around the reserved space is heavily wired and the wires electrically connected with an alarm gong in the office of the company. The building of the pier shed and the assembling of the cargo that will be loaded aboard the Deutschland for her return trip was done in great haste after the departure of the Deutschland from Baltimore on her first return voyage. A large force of men was engaged for the construction work, the activity continued day and night until the mast before the roof was in place the cargo began to arrive. It was announced at the time that a sister submersible, the Bremen, was momentarily expected and it was presumed that the preparations were for this vessel.

The bringing of the German steamer Willehad from Boston to act as a mother ship for the merchant submarines was accomplished without incident, although the ship, at one time, according to her officers dared the possible watchfulness and presence of enemy cruisers by venturing outside the three mile neutrality limit.

Captain Hinsch, formerly master of the North German Lloyd Steamship Nekar, now at Baltimore, is stationed at New London as port captain for the Eastern Forwarding Company.

The first intimation of the near approach of the Deutschland came at 12:05 o'clock when she was picked up by the searchlight of the government dredge Atlantic, which was working off Eastern Point. The Atlantic sent the news by wireless to the T. A. Scott Company who made arrangements to meet the submarine with the tug T. A. Scott, Jr.

On board the tug were Captain F. Hinsch of the Eastern Forwarding Company; Dr. E. C. Chipman, city health officer; Dr. R. E. Black, health inspector, and Jeremiah Dillon, connected with the local customs office.

As the tug drew near, Captain Koenig shouted a welcome and invited the party to come aboard. He said his crew consisted of four officers and 25 men who were in excellent health. Permission accordingly was given to proceed to the dock. All but two of the crew were on the Deutschland on her first trip.

Deutschland
A Merchantman

The state department, however, formally ruled on July 15, that the submarine was entitled to all the rights and privileges belonging to a merchant vessel flying the flag of a belligerent country in a neutral port.

Captain Koenig and men were lavishly entertained during their stay at Baltimore and the crew made a brief trip to Washington.

After remaining in United States territorial waters about three weeks, the Deutschland, heavily laden with a cargo of rubber and nickel, drew away from her pier August 1, and under her own power sailed from Baltimore on her homeward journey. American warships maneuvered outside the Virginia Capes to guard against any possible violation of American neutrality. The races were reached the following night with only the faithful tug Timmins and a newspaper boat in the vicinity.

The vessel arrived at the mouth of the Weser river on the afternoon of August 23. There was great rejoicing throughout Germany and Captain Koenig was ordered to Berlin to make a personal report of his trip to Emperor William.

While no definite announcement of the Deutschland's leaving Bremen on a second trip was made, reports persisted during the last few days that she was again on her way to an American port. Several times it was rumored that the Deutschland had either been sunk or captured.

F. F. Smith, the only one of the Marine officers now alive, said: "The explosion of the first torpedo threw me from a settee. I rushed up to where the boats already were being launched. We got 26 men into my boat; there were seven in the second boat.

Second Mate Robertson crushed to death between his boat and the listing ship. We saw several bodies in the water. After leaving the ship we had a terrible experience. The sea was rough and the weather extremely bitter. He Has Kept Us Out of War!

EX-PRESIDENT WM. H. TAFT SAYS:

WHAT JINGO DID HE MEAN?

"If we had a jingo in the White House this country would now be at war with Germany. Instead, our chief executive is a man who appreciates his responsibility and realizes that considering the temper of the people a turn of his hand would plunge us into an international conflict."—Mr. Taft, at Bryn Mawr, a., June 4, 1915.

LOYAL TO THE PRESIDENT'S POLICY

"You know President Wilson's policy. I'm loyal to the President and behind him in that policy. You would not think much of me if I wasn't."—Mr. Taft to the Canadian Club, Toronto, February 11, 1915.

NEUTRALITY ATTITUDE ADMIRABLE

"President Wilson's attitude on neutrality has been most admirable, and the force of his plea for it was accentuated by its simplicity and directness. The stand he has taken will be for the good of the whole world when the time comes for mediation."—Mr. Taft to the Providence, R. I., Chamber of Commerce, October 16, 1914.

FOREIGN NOTES DIGNIFIED AND EMPHATIC

"I have read the texts of the two messages and I was very, very glad to see that they have been forwarded to London and Berlin. I regard the notes as clear, dignified and emphatic."—Mr. Taft, commenting on foreign notes, February 13, 1915.

WILSON'S MASTERFUL PERSONALITY

"Never before, in its history certainly, has the Democratic party exercised such self-control. It is due to the circumstances and to Mr. Wilson's masterful personality and attitude. First, he knows what he wishes, and, second, he is determined to get it, and his party associates are convinced of both facts."

"It is a real satisfaction to one who knows the atmosphere of Washington to note the success of a strong character in the White House in dealing with the situation and improving the opportunity it offers."

"I rejoice in the existence of a situation in which the party in power is fulfilling its promises made in the platform and is doing so by following the guidance of the head of the party, who is charged by the people with the party's responsibility."—Mr. Taft, on "Personal Aspects of the Presidency" in The Saturday Evening Post, July 28, 1914.

INTERVENTION A SERIOUS MATTER

"Nothing in the Monroe Doctrine requires us to bring about peace in Mexico. If we are forced to intervene we will be justified because we have a right to object to a condition of anarchy in a country immediately adjoining ours so long continued as to become an international nuisance."

"I entirely acquit the present administration of any desire to involve us in war with Mexico and I credit it with an earnest and sincere wish to avoid it if possible."

"In Carranza's inadequate policing we are entirely justified in pursuing Villa and punishing him and his fellow bandits and the sooner his fangs are drawn the better. I am glad to hear that a sufficient force is being sent after him. We should hope that we may not have to enter on a general intervention because that will be a serious matter and involve consequences the scope of which we cannot measure. But that there is ground for thinking it possible no one can deny."—Mr. Taft, to the Unitarian Club, Boston, March 10, 1916.

DESERVES SUPPORT FOR AVERTING WAR

"We are fortunate in having kept out of the present European War and we ought to support the administration in keeping us out."—Mr. Taft, to the Congregational Club, Chicago, November 19, 1914.

MR. WILSON IS OUR PRESIDENT

"He (Wilson) is not a Democratic President. He is our President. He is first an American, the same as we are. We must all be Americans first."—Mr. Taft, at Kansas City, May 23, 1915.

"This is no time to point out mistakes of the past. This is no time by attacks upon the General in command to give the idea that our commander has not a united people behind him."—Mr. Taft, before the Mystic Athletic Club, Chicago, April 21, 1916.

complaints in the state. It was reported on the quoted remarks of the Republican candidate for congress of the Sixth District that the superintendent of a large steel mill at Portsmouth had served notice that the mill would shut down if President Wilson is elected.

LOSES FAITH IN HUGHES

Columbus, O., Nov. 1.—Former Representative Joseph F. Bertsch, who was a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress in the Twelfth District, today announced the transfer of his support from Charles E. Hughes to President Woodrow Wilson.

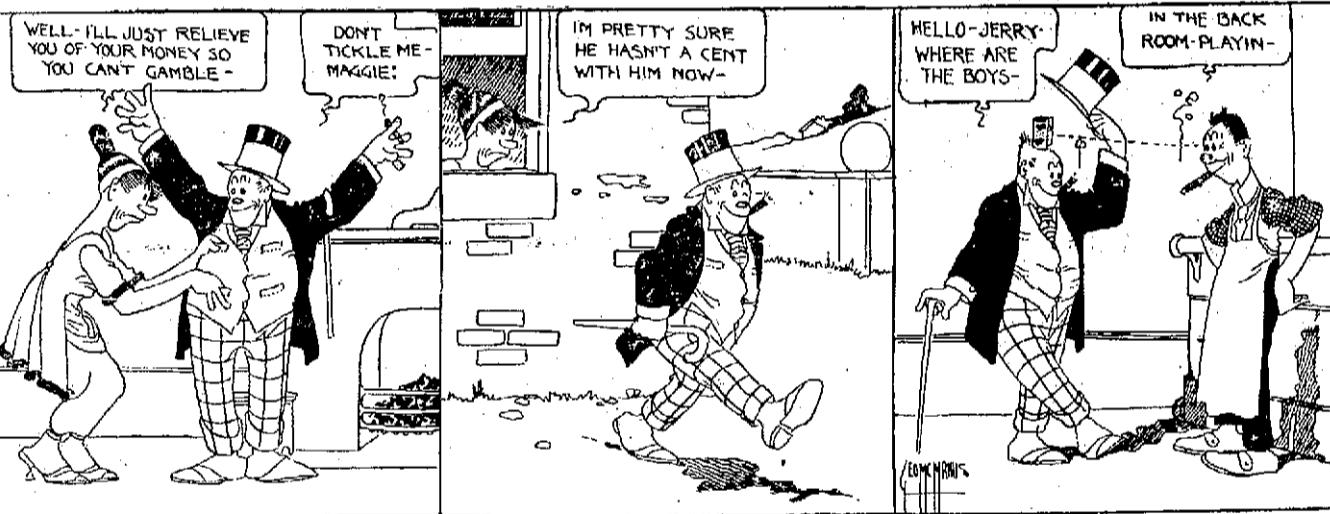

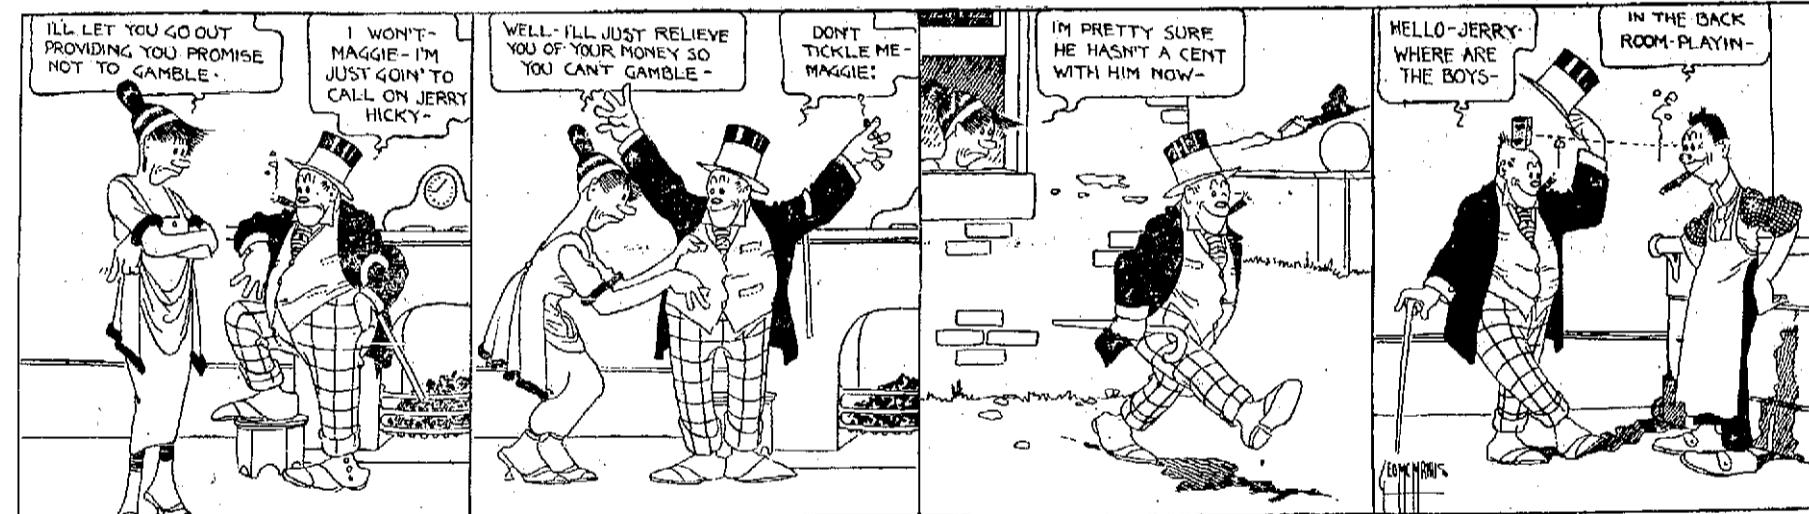

At the outset he asserted he believed Hughes would make a dignified campaign which would inspire the people and elevate them intelligently and educationally. Instead he has developed, says Bertsch, a disposition of 'contrariness, criticism and fault finding, not recognizing any act of President Wilson as in the least praiseworthy; although that official was responsible for the child labor law, the credit bank, the Trade Commission, the Tariff Commission, the eight-hour day and other good things for the community. Not always has he agreed, he said, with President Wilson in his international policies, but considering their declaration, neither Hughes or his friend Roosevelt, would have done better. Hughes, he asserted, has not proposed any remedies which would improve conditions in the country nor shown that he would serve the people better than Wilson.

The bolt of Bertsch, who asserts many other Republicans are joining him, is the Democratic answer to the claim that the visit of Hughes here last night has started a wave of Republicanism rolling. Other converts are announced to be ready to declare between now and election day for Wilson.

POLITICS

REPLIES TO ROOSEVELT

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 1.—Senator Robert L. Owen, of Oklahoma, in a speech here replied to statements of Theodore Roosevelt on his recent western campaign tour that during President Wilson's administration "over 500 Americans and 300 Chinese" have been killed in Mexico.

"Mr. Roosevelt's premises are untrue," declared Senator Owen. "Under Roosevelt's own administration at least 60 Americans were reported killed; under Taft, 57 Americans; under Wilson 119 citizens and 38 soldiers and marines during nearly four years of revolution. During Taft's administration 386 foreigners were reported to the state department as killed in Mexico and during Wilson's administration only 230 were reported, including 17 British, 38 Spaniards, four Germans, four Japanese and seven Chinese.

Roosevelt's statement that the president had abandoned 3000 Americans exposed to a mob at Tampico is a base campaign card and calumny.

Admiral Mayo ordered his boats in and Captain Dougherty of the British navy requested Admiral Mayo to permit British marines to remove all foreigners to prevent loss of life. This was done and all Americans were sent home by Admiral Mayo without any loss of life. Captain Dougherty put his request on the ground of protecting British subjects from exposure to battle in the streets of Tampico, which would have oc-urred if United States marines had landed. The United States had just killed over 100 Mexicans at Vera Cruz."

WILSON IN NEW YORK

On Board President Wilson's Special Train, Binghamton, N. Y., Nov. 1.—President Wilson today entered on the final stage of his campaign for re-election. Passing through here today enroute to Buffalo for his first speech of the campaign in New York state, he was greeted by a large crowd at the station. He shook hands with as many persons as possible. So busy was he kept in carrying out this formality, that when his cap fell off once, a secret service man put it back on.

The president will speak three times in New York City tomorrow.

row. With him on the trip are to appoint the secretary of state and attorney general also.

"The Warnes law is the most undemocratic measure ever foisted on any people from Jefferson down till now.

"The fact that he used the banking department of the state to pay political debts at the expense of the depositors of wrecked banks, is not Democratic.

"He insisted that money should be appropriated in lump sums so that he could dictate how it should be spent, and that is not Democratic.

"There are thousands of Democrats in Ohio who do not believe in this sort of undemocratic measures and who will not support such an autocratic program. I defy my opponent in this campaign to defend his position on these measures before the people."

WANT TO HEAR WILSON

New York, Nov. 1.—So great has been the demand for tickets to the popular reception to President Wilson at Madison Square Garden on Thursday night that carpenters were put to work today to increase the seating capacity of the mammoth auditorium by two thousand.

Four years ago the totals were Roosevelt, 796; Wilson, 387; Taft, 175; Debs, 411; Chafin, 79.

WILLIS MAKES CHARGES

Akron, O., Nov. 1.—"That the things James M. Cox stood for when governor and has advocated since are undemocratic," was the charge Governor Willis made in his swing through Tuscarawas and Summit counties yesterday. Everywhere the governor was met by a large and enthusiastic crowds and last night he spoke to a thousand people at Barberton and to four thousand in Market street here.

"My opponent's favoring of the short ballot was not Democratic. He was not satisfied with appointing assessors, but wanted

HERRICK SPEAKS

Moore, Nov. 1.—The action of a Democratic congress in providing for a tariff commission was declared yesterday by Myron T. Herrick, Republican candidate for United States senator, in Warren county, as an admission by Democrats and the Wilson administration of the need for a change in the tariff and a revision upwards. Mr. Herrick blamed the failure of the present administration to enforce the anti-trust laws for the high cost of living.

He said this country is paying as much in the increased cost of the necessities of life as Great Britain is in maintaining her army in the field, and declared the only hope of lower prices to be in the restoration of the Republican party to power at Washington.

"The Democratic campaign slogan, 'He kept us out of war,' was again attacked by the Republican senatorial candidate, who compared Switzerland and all other small European neutral nations with the United States.

"Switzerland has no Woodrow Wilson and has still kept out of the European war," said Mr. Herrick. "That little country kept the respect of all warring nations by her firm stand, while we have hardly a friend left across the water."

Local Warriors Are Anticipating Victory

The P. H. S. football warriors although only having turned in one victory out of four games are not the least bit disheartened and are practicing faithfully every afternoon to strengthen the weak points uncovered in the game with Chillicothe last Saturday.

Ross, a heavy guard who was pulled to Chillicothe, will likely get back into the game Saturday at Millbrook park when the platoon-driven representing Gallipolis high school plays here.

Gallipolis was beaten twice last year by the locals, the score at Millbrook and at Gallipolis being 26 to 6. Advance reports are that Gallipolis has a much heavier team this year than last and P. H. S. will have a hard time winning in easy fashion.

New York, Nov. 1.—"This fellow has been up against it and we've got to stand by him," declared Ty Cobb today, referring to President Wilson, who was shifted to end last Saturday to the end position this week. The team could not be stronger with Anderson and Mathews at the beginning of the presidential season and has made good. You'll find the ball players for him, hook, line and sinker. They know better than anybody what a fickle public can do to a man. He has stuck to his knitting, listening to none of the clamor from the grand stand. You can't beat that kind of a man."

Columbus, Nov. 1.—With his work cut out before him, after having seen the strong Wisconsin team in action, Coach Wilce sent his squad through a driving scrum against the reserves on Ohio Field yesterday afternoon. The Wisconsin eleven, which triumphed so decisively over Chicago last Saturday, is not a team to be considered lightly.

The line, from tackle to tackle, is bulk and bulk, and this, with the speedy, shifty backfield of the Badgers, is a hard nut to solve, and it will take all Ohio has to defeat this combination.

Yesterday's practice showed the vastly imitated with the real spirit of the big impending fight. With little trouble the backs tore around the opposing ends, bucked through the line and went through the usual list of general football drill. Opposition on the part of the reserves was swept away by the interference or knifed by a lineman who had broken through.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Nicholas E. Young, formerly president of the National League, died at his home here early today. He had been employed in the treasury department for some time. Mr. Young was 76 years old.

Granville, Nov. 1.—Denison will meet its test of the season this week when Miami is met at Dayton Saturday. Neither team has been defeated in an Ohio conference struggle so far this year and some fans, who protest to know, say that the outcome at the Gem City will help decide the championship of the state.

Omaromar is a double word.

It spells Omar twice. It spells aroma, too.

That aroma belongs to Omar because it's aroma that's rich and quite exceptional—a triumph of blending—the art of cigarette making.

Omar—the perfect Turkish blend. Even the words blend.

Says Kearns Will Close The Steel Plant, Not Turnipseed

"Will Hon. A. G. Turnipseed, Democratic candidate for congress, close the steel mill?" was a question asked ex-Senator J. I. Hudson Tuesday evening at the organization meeting of the Wilson-Marshall Club at Democratic headquarters, Masonic Temple.

"No," stated Mr. Hudson, "Mr. Kearns is going to close the mill. If you want my opinion of this thing, I will say that it is utter foolishness."

He intimated that coercion was being applied in the Whitaker-Glessner Company, in an attempt to make employees wear Hughes buttons, and added that he believed that there would be a federal investigation.

After the address by ex-Senator J. I. Hudson, permanent officers were elected. W. R. Graham was selected as president; George Carroll, vice president; William West, secretary, and J. J. Orlett, treasurer.

"If you gentlemen came here tonight expecting to hear a prepared speech, you are going to be disappointed," said ex-Senator Hudson, on being introduced by George L. Gableman. "There are so many things that the Democratic party stands for and so many things that could be discussed in the campaign that I scarcely know where to begin."

Has Boost For The County Ticket

"There is the county ticket. This ticket is composed of men we all know. Every one on this ticket has been tried and has not been found wanting. They will be good service to the city and worst tax laws we have had. It is the county ticket, I want to call assessors, but for any cause the county auditor can remove and who is the non-partisan candidate appoint whom he pleases. If there is a probate judge. No man has ever been a law that tends to ever fill the city solicitor job, build up a machine, it is this one, better than Stanley McCall."

"When the Democratic legislature will agree with me, that Stanley McCall is going to be the next Warne's law."

"The candidate for Lieutenant-governor, Earl D. Bloom, of Bellfontaine, is a most excellent and deserving Democrat. Vic Donahey is the best auditor of state we have ever had. I was associated with this man and he deserves to be."

"There is a bill that Governor Willis has laid great emphasis upon in this campaign, which Governor Cox vetoed. It is true that Mr. Cox vetoed it and sent the bill back to legislature with his reasons for doing so. But he suggested certain things to be done to the bill before it became done to the bill before it became re-drawn with the suggestions in it and passed the house and senate and was signed by Governor Cox. It is the only vetoed labor measure that came to Governor Cox, Mr. Hudson declared."

"Speaking of that, I want to call your attention to a folder which was given to me by Thomas J. Donley, secretary of the Ohio Federation of Labor, a man whom I often meet when I visit Columbus. I have known him for a good many years. He used to be around legislature trying to get legislation for the laboring men of the state. It calls the attention of the laboring men of the state to the 1911 Ohio legislature of which I, for the first time, had the honor to be a member."

"During this legislature, the labor leaders of the state requested a number of laws. Perhaps it did not give the men everything they asked for but pretty nearly everything."

"In 1911 there were 24 different labor bills passed which became laws." The speaker then enumerated several of the bills.

"In 1913, there came certain requests from the labor leaders and members of the labor unions and they got from the legislature in 1913, 16 different measures that became laws."

"In 1914, we gave you 7 labor measures. That was the last legislature that I was connected with. The next legislature was known as the Willis legislature. To begin with, it opened January 1, 1915. The labor leaders went with 76 requests for labor measures. They received one and one that was passed in 1914 was repeated. That's what you got out of the Willis legislature. The bill received was known as the Green Bill, or the Seven Bill or the Miners Gross Weight Bill."

Mr. Hudson Explains The Green Bill

In explaining the Green Bill, he said, that action was taken by Governor Cox after a commission composed of technical men and experienced men had investigated the mining situation and recommended the bill.

"On the state ticket, you have James M. Cox, to my mind one of the best governors the state ever had. James Cox is no trimmer. If James Cox would have wanted to trim, they couldn't have beaten him. He is fair and square."

Senator Hudson said that one of the best tax laws ever enacted in the state—the Warne Law—was passed during the Cox administration.

"Governor Cox was absolutely fair. Under this law, the assessors were appointed and not elected as they were before and are now. They accused Cox of building a machine."

George Washington versus "Gooseliver" Baker

WHAT THE WILSON ADMINISTRATION THINKS OF THE MEN OF '76

Hon. Newton D. Baker, present Secretary of War, in an address delivered in St. Patrick's Theatre, Jersey City, N. J., on October 16th, sounds the keynote of the Wilson spirit in a startling way:

"I know that the Mexicans do not respect American life and property; I know they do not pay their debts; that they are ragamuffins; that they desecrate church property; that their money is no good and that they are generally worthless. But people never respect those things in revolutions. We did not respect them in our Civil War. Washington's soldiers in the march to Valley Forge stole everything they could lay their hands on; they took the silver vessels out of the churches, and sold them to buy drink. They drove ministers out of the churches. Their money was worthless and they were just as bad characters as the MEX-ICANS."

WHAT WASHINGTON THOUGHT OF HIS ARMY

Washington's opinion of his band of patriots is shown in his communication to Congress, dated April 21, 1778: "Without arrogance or the slightest deviation from truth, it may be said that no history now extant can furnish an instance of an army's suffering such uncommon hardships as ours has done and bearing them with the same patience and fortitude. To see men without clothes to cover their nakedness, without blankets to lie on, without shoes for the want of which their marches might be traced by the blood from their feet, and almost as often without provisions as with them, marching through the frost and snow and at Christmas taking up their winter quarters within a day's march of the enemy without a house or a hut to cover them till they could be built, and submitting without a murmur, is a proof of patience and obedience which, in my opinion, can scarce be paralleled."

Christian Endeavor Meeting Proves To Be Big Success

Failed To Take Advice, Arrested; Police News

Harry Hardford, a boilermaker, of 428 Fourth street, was arrested after failing to take Patrolman Harding's advice to go home after saloon closing time Tuesday night.

Hardford in crossing Third and Market streets is said to have shouted to an auto party asking them if they had any beer. They resented the inquiry, telling him that they were not "bootlegging." Hot words were exchanged and a fight seemed imminent when Harding arrived upon the scene. After starting Hardford on his way Hardding was surprised to find him to be arrested. He was fined $5.

Hardford tried to explain to the court that his purpose in returning was to buy some cigarettes. He said Hardding seemed to "take sides" with the others and had struck him in the mouth. The court held that Hardford had only himself to blame for getting into trouble and fined him $10, suspending half of the amount.

Charles James was the name given by a stranger claiming to be a showman from Indiana who was found drunk at the N. & W. terminals about midnight. He was fined $5.

Kenneth Singer's failure to appear in court Tuesday evening to answer to a charge of disorderly conduct was fined $5.

Robert Peterson with whom Singer had a dispute over a pool table, was dismissed Tuesday evening because he kept his word and reported for trial.

John McNeal was the name

Susie Is Very Black; But She Mashed And Caught White Man

Just how the carnival spirit of two dusky belles of the North young girl of Coalton, were married led to the arrest of one and a man in Wellston, Monday, by Rev. white man was revealed in police Father John Meads. Immediately court. Wednesday morning.

Susie Dixon, a Lexington, Ky. negress, black as the "ace of spades", while the white man gave the name of S. J. Jefferson. He is an out-of-town steelworker. It appears that Susie was a dishwasher at the Wagner-Glessner Company's plant. Susie is a dish washer at the Manhattan restaurant.

It appears that Susie and "Black Agnes" Henderson a police character, after masking themselves Tuesday afternoon started out on a "lark," going to New Boston and making the rounds of the saloons and having a gay old time in general. At one of the saloons Jefferson was tricked to the pair and according to Susie's story in court "he began hugging me up." She said she protested that that was no place for such conduct as she did not want to reveal her sex whilst in the saloon so Jefferson boarded a street car with them and came down town. Susie said she engaged a room in Ed "Deety" Johnson's apartments at "Mother" Davis' home near Twelfth and Railroad. Johnson pleaded guilty to keeping a house of ill fame but Susie plainly acknowledged all, even to telling that when she had white friends "Deety" charged her double price or 50 cents for the use of a room. She also told of having seen Jefferson at the house before.

Jefferson was given quite a scolding by the mayor who reminded him that certain colored men were making their boasts of what they would do to white men they might find in the company of colored women. All three were fined $25 and costs each to stand committed until fines and costs are paid.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McAdams, of Cincinnati, who motored to this city last Friday, and visited her sisters, Misses Margaret and Fan O'Connor, of Eleventh street, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Julius Montavon, Sr., has moved from 1638 Jackson avenue to 1655 Eighth street.

Miss Henrietta Brown, a high school student, who was badly hurt in a fall in the high school building Monday, was reported considerably better today.

Miss Hazel Jones entertained last evening with a Halloween party at her home, 1522 Mound street, in honor of the Misses Bessie and Myrtle Hoy, of Columbus. The rooms were made attractive with orange and black crepe paper and autumn leaves. The evening was spent in music and dancing. A delicious two-course supper was served by Mrs. Jones in the pretty dining-room, where the table was adorned with panels in black and yellow. The favors were orange and black baskets filled with candy. Those present were: Bess and Myrtle Hoy, Erma and Esther Guilekay, Mabel Moritz, Ruth Shaw, Marie and Clara McLaughlin, Mary Purdon, Hazel Rodger, Padan, John Williams, Lynn, Elliott, and William McKnight, Joe Sisler, Harry Davis, Carl Wolfe, W. M. Pusher, Glen Warner, Anna Jones.

Wilson's Opinion of Labor Before He Entered Politics

New York City, June 18, 1909.

Mr. Woodrow Wilson,
President Princeton University,
Princeton, N. J.

Dear Sir:-

In the New York Times of June 14, which purports to give extracts of your baccalaureate address to the students of Princeton University, you are quoted as follows:-

"You know what the usual standard of the employee is in our day. It is to give as little as he may for his wages. Labor is standardized by the trade unions, and this is the standard to which it is made to conform. No one is suffered to do more than the average workman can do. In some trades and handicrafts no one is suffered to do more than the least skillful of his fellows can do within the hours allotted to a day's labor, and no one may work out of hours at all or volunteer anything beyond the minimum."

Now, your reported remarks strike me as being so extraordinary--so different from what I, as a member of organized labor, have found to be the facts--that I feel impelled to ask you if the foregoing paragraph is a correct report of what you said.

If you are correctly quoted, I should like to have you give me your authority for your statement that in labor unions "no one is suffered to do more than the average workman can do." Also give me the names of a few trades or handicrafts where "no one is suffered to do more than the least skillful of his fellows can do within the hours allotted to a day's labor, and no one may work out of hours at all or volunteer anything beyond the minimum."

As a matter of course, a president of a university of the reputed standing of Princeton would not make statements in his baccalaureate address unless he knows, or at least fully believes, that his statements are true. Therefore it ought not be a difficult matter for you to oblige me with the names of those labor unions whose laws, or even policies, bring about the results you specify.

Awaiting your reply with lively interest, I am,

Yours very truly,

Edgar R. Lavery

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY
PRINCETON, N. J.

June 18th, 1909.

My dear Sir:-

Your letter of June 18th contains a very proper challenge. I quite agree that I ought not to make the statements I did make about the trades unions, unless I were able to cite cases in verification of my statements.

I, of course, had no individual trades unions in mind which I can name by name, but I had in mind several cases of buildings in New York City, for example, the brick layers working on which spent about one third of the working day sitting around, smoking their pipes and chatting, because they had laid the number of bricks to which they were limited for the day by the union to which they belonged. I had in mind numerous experiences of my own in dealing with working men in Princeton, where I once found it impossible, for example, on a very cold evening to get a broken window pane mended at the house of an invalid friend, because the panes mended at the house of an invalid friend, because the

Labor's Opinion of Hughes After He Retired From Politics

"HE WAS A GREAT GOVERNOR"

"Now that Governor Hughes has retired from politics and ascended to a place on the highest judicial tribunal in the world, the fact can be acknowledged without hurting anybody's political coms, that he was the greatest friend of labor laws that ever occupied the governor's chair at Albany. During his two terms he has signed 56 labor laws, including among them the best labor laws ever enacted in this or any other state. He also urged the enactment of labor laws in his messages to the legislature, even going so far as to place the demand for a labor law in one of his messages to an extra session of the legislature.

"Only 162 labor laws have been enacted in this state since its erection in 1777--in 133 years. One-third of these, exceeding in quality all of the others, have been enacted and signed during Governor Hughes's term of three years and nine months.

"With such a record of approval and suggestion of progressive legislation in the interest of humanity to his credit it is easy to believe that human rights will have a steadfast and sympathetic upholder in the new Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States."

From the October, 1910, Issue of Legislative News, Published by New York State Federation of Labor.

Labor's Opinion of Hughes is Based on WHAT HE HAS DONE

These Are Some of the Laws He Advocated and Signed While Governor of New York:

Wainwright Commission of Inquiry.

Automatic mutual agreement compensation law.

Automatic compulsory compensation.

(The first law of this kind enacted in the United States.)

Limiting the hours of labor for street car men.

Limiting the hours of labor for men in train service.

Limiting the hours of labor for signalmen and railroad telegraphers.

Placing young women from 18 to 21 years of age in the protected class.

ELEVEN CHILD LABOR LAWS extending over a period from 1907 to 1910.

(These laws secured the first definite standard for the protection of children in New York.)

HALLOWE'EN PARTY ENDS IN ACCIDENTAL KILLING

"Watch me shoot this revolver over of Camp Creek, stopped directly in the path of the bullet and it lodged in his right temple, Mercer falling dead in his tracks.

The tragedy was enacted on a lonely country road, as two Hallowe'en crowds were on their way home from parties they had attended.

With enthusiasm born of youth and intensified by the spirit of Hallowe'en, the boys and girls, all masked, indulged in all sorts of pranks. At one time the crowds separated and held sham battles. Innocent fun ran high until a shot rang out, followed by a loud shriek, and Mercer, an innocent victim of a Hallowe'en prank, fell to the ground mortally wounded. Believing that Mercer was "fooling" the crowd, as he was not aware that there was a bullet in the chamber of the revolver, Entler laughingly picked up Mercer's body and started to carry it to one side of the road, when he noticed blood trickling down Mercer's face. It was then the masked celebrants of Hallowe'en gathered panic-stricken around the lifeless form of one of their party who had been accidentally killed. Several girls in the party became hysterical from fright.

No time was lost in notifying the officials at Waverly. Entler, who had accidentally killed Mercer, summoned Dr. O. C. Andre and L. E. P. O. and made an investigation of Wells, of Waverly, but their services were not needed, as Mercer met his instant death.

Sheriff Ben Entler, of Waverly, who is an uncle of Monford Entler, was at a political meeting at Camp Creek when he heard of the regrettable tragedy. He hurried to Pike Creek. All parties are well known in Pike county, where news of the affair was learned with profound sorrow.

Entler and Entler were the best of friends, according to statements made by young men in the parties last night.

The coroner of Pike county will hold an inquest.

MRS. G. M. LAYMAN CARRIED ABOUT JUST LIKE A BABY

But 'Twas Different With Credo Sufferer When Nerv-Worth Came

The following statement was made at Huntington, some time ago by C. M. Layman, of Credo, W. Va., near Huntington.

"My wife had an operation performed upon her which left her in a nervous collapse. Three doctors doctored her. I paid $180.00 for hospital and medicine bills. She had to be carried about like a baby. One bottle of Nerv-Worth has done her more good than all the doctors and medicine I bought. She could not sleep two hours per night before taking Nerv-Worth. Now she can sleep eight to ten hours; has a good appetite, is gaining strength and flesh and is able to do part of her housework. Her sickness has cost me thousands of dollars. I was ready to sell all my property at any price to leave for Texas in order for my wife to regain her health. I consider Nerv-Worth a godsend."

TORCHLIGHT PARADE WILL PRECEDER HARDING RALLY

A rousing torchlight parade in which there will be a large delegation of employees of the Whitaker-Glessner company and several bands has been arranged by the Scioto County Republican executive committee for Friday night, when Senator Warren G. Harding will deliver an address before the last big Republican rally to be held at Distel hall, Seventh and Chillicothe streets.

D. Willard Gustin, secretary of the executive committee stated Wednesday that orders have been forwarded for the torchlights.

Elaborate preparations are being made by local Republicans for the Harding meeting, which will practically wind up the campaign waged in the city and county by the Republicans.

Senator Harding is recognized as one of the best speakers in the country and he is sure to be given a rousing send off here. He will discuss the issues of the day in his usual clear and concise manner.

Republicans are banking on this as being a real humdinger of a meeting.

Thrusts Head Out Of Car Window, Is Badly Hurt

Ray Garrett, aged 19, employed on the new C. & O. bridge at Sciotoville was badly injured Tuesday evening while on his way to the city to attend Hallowe'en festivities.

Thrusting his head out of a street car window just this side of the Y. M. C. A. in East Portsmouth it came in contact with an eastbound car and Garrett received such a hard blow that it was first feared he had suffered a fractured skull. He fell back in his seat in an unconscious condition and as soon as possible was removed to the Hempstead hospital. There it was learned that his condition was not serious. He suffered a cut on his right eye, his right arm was bruised and his left eye was badly cut. He was attended by Dr. Carl Braunlin and was reported better today. Garrett is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrett of Somerset, Ky.

DRINK TO YOUR HEALTH

Kentucky Carlsbad Water

There is more to the caption of this little article than, at a glance would appear.

If one would stop and consider what the drinking of PURE WATER means and then add to this the wonderful medicinal properties contained in Kentucky Carlsbad Water, one would get the full meaning of "Drink to Your Health."

This "WONDER WATER" comes from the earth at a depth of over 1,100 feet, is thoroughly filtered, which removes any possible foreign matter, but does not remove any of its health giving properties, and is put up in half-gallon bottles (six to a case) that have been thoroughly washed and cleansed and then sterilized with live steam.

To each case, as above described, is added one smaller bottle of the Natural Mineral Water, that has been fortified for use in cases of constipation or when the bowels need flushing.

Unless you are familiar with Kentucky Carlsbad Water you are, no doubt, wondering what the wonderful curative properties contained in this water are and what we claim for them.

If you will send for our free booklet, which gives the analysis of Kentucky Carlsbad Water, and submit same to your physician, he will tell you that by using the water in liberal quantities it will correct Uric Acid (the cause of most rheumatism), Albumen (the symptoms of Diabetes), and will give quick relief in cases of Stomach Trouble.

We have here at Dry Ridge a thoroughly modern sanatorium and hotel, where patients receive prompt and permanent relief from all the above troubles.

Our rates are low and we would like to correspond with you in reference to your particular trouble. Write for booklet.

"FATHER OF MOTORIZATION" SHAKES HANDS WITH HON. CHARLES E. HUGHES

Chas. W. Wilson, the leader of the local Republican city council, had the pleasure of shaking hands with Chas. E. Hughes, the presidential candidate at Columbus, Monday night, but says it was by pure accident.

Mr. Wilson said he was on a side street approaching Memorial Hall when he suddenly noticed an automobile in which three persons were seated trying to force its way through the congested thoroughfare. An instant later cries were heard "There he is!" as if from a thousand voices. He said the machine came to a stop just where he himself had halted at the curb. He climbed aboard the running board and shook hands with Mr. Hughes. The next instant he was forced over into the machine by the crowd pressing against it, the women seemingly being the most eager to grasp Mr. Hughes' hand.

The scarcity of freight cars is given as the cause of the limited supply of coal and the high price.

Underwood Act Will Ruin Shoe Trade Say Dealers!

URGE THE DEFEAT OF WILSON FOR PROTECTION OF WORKERS

Cincinnati, Nov. 1.—That the shoe manufacturing industry in the United States will be killed, factories closed and women now employed in them thrown out of work in less than two years after the close of the European war, unless the Underwood law is repealed and a protective tariff law is passed, is proven by what happened in every American shoe manufacturing and shoe jobbing center from October, 1913, to August, 1914.

C. H. Krippendorf of the Krippendorf-Dittman company, which employs close to 3,000 men and women, is recognized as an authority on shoe making.

He has investigated conditions in all the shoe manufacturing cities of Europe and is a writer on the industry. Krippendorf said:

"Everything which can be said has been said and it is now up to the people. Wages of shoe workers in England are less than half what they are in the United States. In southern Europe they are about one-third of what they are in the United States.

"Ohio shoe manufacturers and shoe workers were just beginning to get a taste of the Underwood law.

"During the summer months of 1914, the Ohio market was invaded and the canvassing of the wholesale trade by salesmen from English, German, French and Swiss manufacturers was in full swing when it was stopped by the war.

English Cities Compete

Walter Wichgar, vice president and treasurer, Cincinnati Shoe Company, said:

"In one of the biggest wholesale houses in the country, a short time after the Underwood law was in effect, I was shown shoe samples from Manchester and other English cities. They were all tagged at prices which no American manufacturer could meet, and they were well made, good wearing shoes.

"The whole matter can be summed up this way: Unless there is a change in Washington American factories will begin closing as soon as the war is over."

DEUTSCHLAND ARRIVES SAFELY ON 2ND TRIP ACROSS ATLANTIC

KOENIG AGAIN IN COMMAND

NEW LONDON, November 1—Germany's first commercial submarine, the Deutschland, arrived here early today, completing her second voyage through the warships of Great Britain and France on both sides of the Atlantic. Under Captain Paul Koenig, who was in command during her first trip to Baltimore, the Deutschland left Bremen on October 10 and tied up at a berth prepared for her at 2:35 o'clock this morning.

The German submarine entered the lower harbor shortly after midnight, coming in by the Race at the entrance to Long Island Sound. For several weeks the Eastern Forwarding company, agents for her owners, had a tug each night off Montauk Point ready to meet the Bremen, but the tug was withdrawn some time ago. It was evident that the forwarding company had some warning of the Deutschland's arrival, however, for a tug was engaged and Captain F. Hirsch said that later in the day Captain Koenig probably would give out a statement regarding his trip across the Atlantic.

Captain Koenig said that except for unusually rough weather the trip across had been uneventful. The Deutschland's cargo is said to consist mainly of chemicals and medicines.

While New London has been expecting the arrival of a German submarine for some months, the Deutschland's appearance was a surprise, except to officials of the Eastern Forwarding company here, the American agents of the German line of submarine merchantmen. The Deutschland appeared off Eastern point soon after midnight and anchored. A heavy fog lay over the harbor. The T. A. Scott Wrecking company, sub agents of the Eastern Forwarding company, sent its tug T. A. Scott Jr., which towed the craft to the special berth at the forwarding company's wharf alongside the North German Lloyd liner Willehad.

Captain Koenig pleaded to newspaper men that he was too tired to talk but promised a statement later in the day.

U-53 IN HOME PORT

Berlin, Nov. 1—The German submarine U-53 has returned safely to a German port, according to the official announcement.

The German submarine U-53, in command of Lieutenant Captain Hans Rose arrived at Newport, R. I., from Wilhelmshaven on October 7 and departed after a stay of three hours. In the course of the next day the U-53 sank five ships off the American coast.

Various reports have been current regarding the submarine and it was uncertain whether the craft was returning to Germany or had remained on this side of the Atlantic. There were various rumors also that she had been sunk. A search by American warships for a German secret base along the New England coast for supplying submarines proved fruitless, according to naval officers.

Gallipolis Meets P. H. S. Here On Saturday; Gridiron News

Local Warriors Are Anticipating Victory

The P. H. S. football warriors although only having turned in one victory out of four games are not the least bit disheartened and are practicing faithfully every afternoon to strengthen the weak points uncovered in the game with Chillicothe last Saturday.

Now, a heavy guard, who was not taken to Chillicothe, will likely get back into the game Saturday at Millbrook when the pickin eleven representing Gallipolis high school plays here.

Gallipolis was beaten twice last year by the locals, the score at Millbrook and at Gallipolis being 26 to 0. Advance reports are that Gallipolis has a much heavier team this year than last and P. H. S. will have a hard time winning in easy fashion.

Captain Paul Shoemaker who had a rib injured in Saturday's game will be back in the lineup Saturday. Anderson who was shifted to end last Saturday will probably be sent to the end position this week. The team could not be stronger with Anderson and Mathews on the end positions, Strickland, Ross, Kegley, Coleman, Perkins and Martin are the men left to pick two guards and two tackles from.

The backfield will remain the same with Left as fullback, Johns as quarter and Shoemaker and Quinn halfbacks. Grimes is developing into a splendid backfield man and Juggins who has been making a good showing will likely start at center.

The team held a meeting after school Tuesday and to discuss new signals and plays.

State Practicing Hard For Wisconsin

Columbus, Nov. 4.—With his work cut out before him, after having seen the strong Wisconsin team in action, Coach Wile sent his squad through a driving scrimmage against the reserves on Ohio Field yesterday afternoon. The Wisconsin eleven, which triumphed so decisively over Chicago last Saturday, is not a team to be considered lightly.

The line, from tackle to tackle, is the bulk and bulk and this, with the speedy, shifty backfield of the Badgers, is a hard nut to solve, and it will take Ohio has to defeat this combination.

Yesterday's practice showed the variety imbued with the real spirit of the big impending fight. With little trouble, the backs tore around the opposing ends, bucked through the line and went through the usual list of general football drill. Opposition on the part of the reserves was swept away by the interference or knifed by a lineman who had broken through.

Pennsy Had To Fight

Ha vard Is Being Picked

One thing can be said of Graves Williams' Pennsy team and that it was not too proud to fight especially after emerging from the game with Pitt last Saturday.

Omaromar is a double word.

It spells Omar twice. It spells aroma, too.

That aroma belongs to Omar because it's aroma that's rich and quite exceptional—a triumph of blending—the art of cigarette making.

Omar—the perfect Turkish blend. Even the words blend.

A Little Story About Coaches

Baseball has its managerial Old Guard in several notable leaders. John McGraw has been a manager 5 years, Connie Mack has been in harness over 20 years, Clark Griffith began leading the White Sox 15 years ago, Stallings was in charge of the Phillies 20 years ago, Fred Clarke dropped out after serving 15 years, and there are others who have led their troops through many campaigns.

In this respect baseball has nothing on football. The lure of the gridiron is as strong for the coach as the lure of the manager.

For some reason the coaches seem to stick around longer in the west than in the east.

Hurry-up Yost broke out as a head coach 18 years ago. He descended upon Michigan 15 years ago and is as much a part of Michigan as the campus buildings. Five years ago he was offered twice his salary to leave for another university. He refused.

Alonzo Stagg at Chicago and Harry Williams at Minnesota both are Yale men—rather, were Yale men.

Today Stagg and Chicago are practically one and the same in a football way. The same is true of Williams and Minnesota.

Stagg left Yale nearly 30 years ago, and he has been at Chicago the greater part of 20 years.

Williams has been at Minnesota almost as long.

From 1901 through 1906 Yost, Stagg and Williams fought out wars that have never been approached in the west nor surpassed in the east.

In the east Walter Camp, the Yale man, was the dean of all coaches, but for a long time he has acted in only an advisory capacity.

When Camp was supreme at Yale, Yale was supreme in the game. Camp has been in football for over 30 years.

Compared to Camp, Yost, Stagg and Williams, Coach Haughton of Harvard is still young at the game.

Ball Players For Wilson

New York, Nov. 1.—"This fellow has been up against it and we've got to stand by him," declared Ty Cobb today, referring to President Wilson. "He has done what he started out to do at the beginning of the presidential season and has made good. You'll find the ball players for him, hook, line and sinker. They know better than anybody what a fickle public can do to a man. He has stuck to his principles, listening to none of the clamor of the grand stand. You can't beat that kind of a man."

Hans Lobert of the Giants is chairman of the new Wilson Club organized among ball players. Jake Daubert of the Brooklyn Dodgers is vice chairman.

Grover Hartley of the St. Louis Browns is second vice chairman, George Burns of the Giants is treasurer and Ty Cobb is chairman of arrangements. The membership is said to include a majority of professional baseball players throughout the country.

It will be the largest affair in the Up-top of the mast-head:

While all this was transpiring the Ivory Knobs, minus the services of their anchor man, Perry Winkler Young, managed to take two out of three from Clark's Ironsides, who were sly one of their most consistent bowlers, the Honorable John Millard. They would probably have lost three in a row had

Cubs To Get Early Start

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Chicago's Cubs will start for their training camp at Pasadena Feb. 20, according to President Weeghman. Their special train will take the southern route, and they will stop to look over the country, especially that of the Grand Canyon. They will start active training March 12.

New Record In Betting

The fall meeting which closed at Latonia last Saturday was the most profitable in the history of the Latonia Jockey club. It was a bell-ringer.

On the last day more than $280,000 was placed in the machines, an average of $40,000 to the race. More than $50,000 was bet on the Latonia cup race, more than has ever been bet on any derby run at that track.

Denison To Play Miami

Granville, Nov. 6.—Denison will meet its test of the season this week when Miami is met at Dayton Saturday. Neither team has been defeated in an Ohio conference struggle so far this year and some fans, who profess to know, say that the outcome of the game at the Gem City will help decide the champion of the state.

THE PROMISE OF THE PRESENT

Often you hear a thing is too good to be true. We opine that must be the feeling of the average citizen of the Peerless when he hears that under a certain contingency, an industry, which has under construction extensions and additions that will cost around three million dollars, will extend them by a further expenditure of a million. It must be confessed that while we have plants that represent an enormous capital their development has been so gradual that we are not accustomed to thinking in million terms. To be called on to do so is as novel as it is agreeable. Dwelling on the novelty earnestly, as we should, comes the clearer conception of importance of Portsmouth as an industrial and the conviction that her development to far greater magnitude is assured.

There should also come with this the purpose in the mind of each citizen to do his individual part in promoting growth and above all that he will not negatively suffer bars to be set upon the actual limit thereof, or be in anywise retarded. This brings us quite naturally to the matter of the annexation of New Boston, to be submitted to the voters, next Tuesday. We reiterate that legally and in the record Portsmouth can not be as great as she ought to be without the admission of the village.

Her expansion to the east is automatically shut off so long as New Boston continues a separate corporate existence. Full in the confidence that every voter of Portsmouth, who is rightfully proud of his home and hopeful of her future, will mark his ballot for annexation, if he does not forget and he is urged to remember. The Times is impressed the voters of New Boston ought to agree with an equal unanimity. Let each one take this thought, the village can in effect, be nothing but a part of Portsmouth, it would be better then to join with her in fact and make a greater Portsmouth. And let not this altogether essential fact be held clear, that here can be no annexation unless both places vote for it.

ITS DIFFICULT TASK

May be this is because most people would rather have the news as they want it rather than as it is.

Let us take the straw ballot being taken by the Cincinnati Enquirer as a case in point bearing on the propositions we have laid down. The Republican state committee has issued a bulletin not only controverting the conclusions ordinarily drawn from the Enquirer ballot, but actually going the length of charging the paper with unfairness and especial effort to draw out a poll favorable to Wilson. On the other hand Democrats find fault with that same ballot, because, as they allege, it is not impartial in the fact that an undue proportion, as they look at it, of the vote is taken in Cincinnati, and quarters thereof, which is regarded as more hostile to the president than any other section of the state. They pooh pooh the claim of the Republicans that the Enquirer is a Democratic paper.

Both overlook one essential fact and that is a paper, whose circulation and prestige rest upon the giving of the news, must hold pretty straight fairness and reliability, else will it have neither influence nor popularity. We have no knowledge or belief that the Enquirer, which seems to have an admirable way of conducting its own business successfully, professes at all to be a Democratic paper, but if it were and not scrupulous as to its partisan methods, it strikes us it would be polling Indiana and all the other states the same as it is alleged to be doing with Ohio. We are neither defending nor apologizing for it, we are simply trying to present the fact of how difficult it is for a newspaper to please all its esteemed subscribers with their many and varied moods and desires. It, in truth, can't. The best it can do is to print the news as accurately as it can get it related and in such a way that the majority will retain full faith and confidence in it. If the politicians would recognize that a new era has come with the press and the very conditions demand newspaper shall be less partisan and more business institutions, building upon fairness, honesty and dependability, the same as other successful businesses do, there would be a better understanding of their mission and their position.

The jingoes and some politicians are finding fault with the administration because it has not so far seen fit to protest against the activities of the German submarine within sight of American shores. There happens to be a reason why the incident has been permitted to pass by without any diplomatic exchanges. In the civil war, when the Kearsarge and the Alabama fought their famous engagement, which we are fond of boasting was the most spectacular in naval warfare, they were only eight miles off the coast of France. Promptly the French government filed a protest. The answer of Secretary Seward, who was one of the most learned and gifted men that ever occupied the position of premier of the cabinet, was that the American government could not admit the right of France to interfere, or dictate the course of warships of another country anywhere outside the three mile limit. So this country is stopped by an explicit declaration to an international law, or common acceptance.

Dwelling on things that float down from that rally at the state capital, Monday, there may be something in that boast that the Peerless have "the best band in the state," though true enough a hundred other towns will dispute it.

THE CHAMPION FOOLISH QUESTION

Tomorrow will be Thursday, the next day Friday, Saturday will be a half holiday to many, Sunday everybody and his wife will be out in his tin Lizzie, the next day Monday and then the election will be here and a campaign that has been fur from delirious over.

From the way some fellows talk we conclude their chief grievance is the times persist not only in remaining good, but growing better.

If we search for perfection in a man we will not find it; therefore how unjust to reject him because he has done one thing that displeases us.

Pity poor Chicago. Scouring the country over she can't find men to fill the thousands of jobs she has waiting for them, or anybody that will work.

Don't forget that because there is a most unusual era of prosperity prevalent money is actually any easier made than it ever was. It still has to be worked and striven for. Wherefore be more than ever on your guard against schemes and projects offering fabulous returns because the fakir and the fraud know the sucker bites most freely in flush periods.

If you have read carefully the instructions how to mark your ballot you need have no fear of losing your vote.

Papers are again jeering Kaiser Wilhelm for his never-failing references to the Deity in his proclamations. Say what they may the world is at least no worse because of his devoutness and faith. And there is one that will not judge him harshly because of his display of these virtues.

NEW-YORK DAY-BY-DAY

BY O.O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Nov. 1—Bellus is raising a new Salome for the uplift of the more or less well-known human race in New York. Critics watched hopefully for a few to be shocked. But there was not a shock, despite the fact that a few thin veils stood between Miss Allan and nudity.

Bare feet do not excite theatre-goers anymore and the human body is becoming a less ribald object. Some day it may even become very neatly respectable.

The office boys of New York—as fine a body of spitball shooters as ever held up big business—are to be taught manners, if there is a chance on earth for it. For the next few weeks special courses for the office wildcats are to be given at the West Side Y. M. C. A.

It is expected that within two weeks the noise in the financial district will decrease ninety per cent. An effort will be made to have the boys out of their habits by Christmas.

For the benefit of those who have never kept an office boy or any like it, it may be stated that there is a tremendous shortage of the errand running species. More than five thousand firms which through war orders and such can now afford an office wretch, are unable to get one.

All of the embryonic outlaws are to be corralled once a week and after they are snubbed into submission they will be told how to be little gentlemen. For the first few weeks it may be necessary to file the necks of the class and after that they will be taught how to horn in, watch out for the boss's wife and other little knick-knacks of the profesh.

An Inpropos Poem

When I wood Matilda I used to admire

The cute little ways that she had,

Why, even to see her eat soup

would inspire

A hard to pen rhymes just as

But it is only my purpose to write

A poem that will live when I'm gone,

I merely remark, though I know that it's true

Matilda had "ways all her own."

But now that we're married,

there's been a slight change

Though I love her the same as of yore,

I cannot enthuse, though you may

think it strange,

O'er the ways that bewitched me before.

She still eats her soup in the self-same old style,

And I'm passive. But here let me say

Though her cute mannerisms no longer beguile,

Matilda now has her own way.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY ENDS IN ACCIDENTAL KILLING

"Unloaded" Revolver Claims Another Victim

"Watch me shoot this revolver over my shoulder!" exclaimed Monford Entler, aged 22, of Camp Creek, Pike county, Tuesday evening, as he was on his way home from a Hallowe'en party held near Pike P. O., Pike county. Placing the revolver on his shoulder, he snapped the trigger, and as he did so, John Mercer, aged 18, of Camp Creek, stepped directly in the path of the bullet and it lodged in his right temple, Mercer falling dead in his tracks.

The tragedy was enacted on a lonely country road, as two Hallowe'en crowds were on their way home from parties they had attended.

With enthusiasm born of youth and intensified by the spirit of Hallowe'en, the boys and girls, all masked, indulged in all sorts of pranks. At one time the crowds separated and held a short battle. Innocent fun ran high until a shot rang out, followed by a loud shriek, and Mercer, an innocent victim of a Hallowe'en prank, fell to the ground mortally wounded.

Believing that Mercer was "fooling" the crowd, as he was not aware that there was a bullet in the chamber of the revolver, Entler laughing picked up Mercer's body and started to carry it to one side of the road, when he noticed blood trickling down Mercer's face. It was then that the masked celebrators of Hallowe'en held an inquest.

THRUSTS HEAD OUT OF CAR WINDOW, IS BADLY HURT

Ray Garrett, aged 19, employed on the new C. & O. bridge at Sciotoville, was badly injured Tuesday evening while on his way to the city to attend Hallowe'en festivities.

Thrusting his head out of a street car window just this side of the Y. M. C. A. in East Portsmouth it came in contact with an eastbound car and Garrett received such a hard blow that it was first feared he had suffered a fractured skull. He fell back in his seat in an unconscious condition and as soon as possible was removed to the Hempstead hospital. There it was learned that his condition was not serious. He suffered a cut over his right eye, his right arm was bruised and his left eye was badly cut. He was attended by Dr. Carl Braunlin and was reported better today.

Garrett is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrett of Somerset, Ky.

First Arrived
On July 9

Following rumors many days old, off-repeated, the Deutschland made its first appearance in American waters at 1:45 in the morning of July 9, etched by the vivid flashes of an electrical storm, the strange looking craft was seen by a pilot boat as she slipped into Chesapeake Bay, after running the gauntlet of cruisers standing guard off the Virginia Capes. Her voyage of approximately 4,100 miles, made without a stop at any port, established a record for craft of the kind.

The Deutschland was soon after picked up by the tug Timmons, which had been at the caps several days awaiting her arrival, and convoyed up the bay to Baltimore, where she dropped anchor that night. On the first trip she brought a cargo of dyestuffs, the value of which was estimated at from $500,000 to $1,000,000. The arrival of the Deutschland at Baltimore created a new diplomatic problem. Was the ship, owing to its submarine characteristic to be classed as a warship or as a peaceful merchantman? The American government at once sent naval experts to Baltimore to investigate. Captain Koenig afforded the government officials every facility and they made a thorough inspection of the craft.

The investigation resulted in the verdict that the Deutschland was a peaceful and unarmed merchantman, incapable of conversion for warlike purposes, without extensive structural changes. Representations were made to the state department by the British and French embassy's setting up the claim that the submarine was a warship even though de- signed and used as a merchantman. It was held it was in-possible for such a craft to comply with the requirements of international law. She could not be stopped and searched, and the representatives of the entente allies asserted, must be regarded as an enemy warship subject to destruction on sight.

Deutschland
A Merchantman

The state department, however, formally ruled on July 15, that the submarine was entitled to all the rights and privileges belonging to a merchant vessel flying the flag of a belligerent country in a neutral port.

Captain Koenig and men were heavily entertained during their stay at Baltimore and the crew made a brief trip to Washington.

After remaining in United States territorial waters about three weeks, the Deutschland, heavily laden with a cargo of rubber and nickel, drew away from her pier August 1, and under her own power sailed from Baltimore on her homeward journey. American warships maneuvered outside the Virginia Capes to guard against any possible violation of American neutrality. The eaves were reached the following night with only the faithful tug Timmons and a newspaper boat in the vicinity.

The vessel arrived at the mouth of the Weser river on the afternoon of August 23. There was great rejoicing throughout Germany and Captain Koenig was ordered to Berlin to make a personal report of his trip to Emperor William.

While no definite announcement of the Deutschland's leaving Bremen on a second trip was made, reports persisted during the last few days that she was again on her way to an American port. Several times, it was rumored that the Deutschland had either been sunk or captured.
